

Jim Sullivan

Cert Ed

Since 2011 Jim Sullivan has been the lead Investigative Interviewer Trainer for Bond Solon Training. Since joining Bond Solon Jim has successfully designed and delivered a range of investigative training courses to a diverse range of public and private sector clients across the UK and Ireland. This include both the Bond Solon Advanced Investigative Interviewing course and the Bond Solon Conducting Virtual Interviews.

Clients include:

Northern Ireland Fire & Rescue Service, Department of Environment Northern Ireland, General Social Care Council, Care Quality Commission, Prisons and Probation Ombudsman, Ofsted, Birmingham City Council, Environment Agency, West Midlands Fire Service, Northumberland County Council, Trading Standards Service N.I., Southwark Council, London Fire & Rescue Service, Chartered Institute of Public Finance, The Local Government Ombudsman, Information Commissioner's Office, HMRC, Natwest, Skills Funding Agency, Woodgate & Clark Ltd, National Express and G4S.

Courses Delivered:

- Investigative Interviewing
- Conducting Investigative Interviews Virtually
- Cognitive Interviewing
- Case File Preparation and Disclosure
- Conflict Management

Work Experience

- Jim was a serving a police officer with Merseyside Police between 1981 and 2011.
- Between 2001-2007 Jim worked as a Detective within the Major Investigation Team (MIT). During his time within the MIT he successfully fulfilled a number of specialist roles including family liaison, telecoms analysis, suspect and key witness interviewer.
- In 2007 he received the Chief Constables Commendation and a Crown Court Judges recommendation for outstanding investigative performance, particularly for his preparation and interview of the main suspects responsible for the horrific murder of Leon Small, the interviews were described in Court as exemplary.

Training Experience

- Between 2007-2011 Jim worked at the Merseyside Crime Faculty as an Investigative Trainer. Jim specialised in the delivery of interview training from initial PACE/PEACE Interviewing Training to advanced suspect level for the Faculty. He was the lead trainer in advanced investigative suspect interview training, working in conjunction with the Department of Critical and Major Incident Psychology at Liverpool University. In partnership with the University of Central Lancashire he was also responsible for the design, delivery and assessments of criminal investigation training to Foundation degree students across a wide spectrum of curriculum subjects. Jim also designed and delivers Bond Solon's Preparing a Case File and Disclosure training.
- Jim also provides training and lectures to local Universities.